

A BIT ABOUT US...

The Wickford Art Association was incorporated in 1969 and granted non-profit status in 1970. In May of 1989, the present gallery at 36 Beach Street in Wickford, Rhode Island was dedicated.

The Wickford Art Association, which has over 300 members, hosts numerous art exhibits, classes, workshops, monthly lectures and demonstrations all of which are open to the public. The WAA also awards Art scholarships to North Kingstown High School seniors every year. This year we will open it to high school seniors all over the state.

The gallery is wheelchair accessible and admission is free.

WAA proudly produces the Wickford Art Festival, ranked #1 in New England, which features more than 200 exhibitors from around the world. In 2011 the Wickford Art Festival was voted "Best Of" by RI Monthly Magazine, and in 2012 our Festival celebrated it's 50th Anniversary.

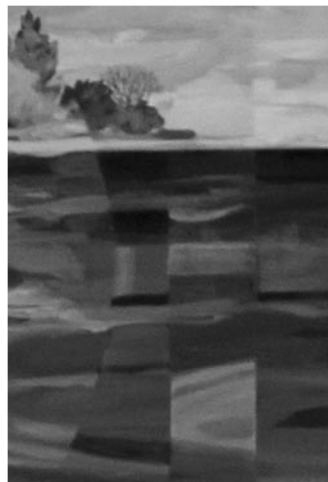

Membership is open to anyone interested in the arts – there are several levels to choose from.
