Shari Weschler Rubeck, branded as Sumo Bunni, is a figural narrative painter who exhibits nationally and internationally. She holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree from the Maryland Institute College of Art, with concentration in painting and art history. While attending MICA she also studied drawing, printmaking and gelatin silver photography.

Rubeck's arts related professional experience includes, Studio Assistant for an avant-garde quilting artist, Artist-In-Residence and Elementary Arts Education through her company Artrageous Adventures. Her curatorial experience began in Baltimore in the 1990s for The Ellicott City Theatre Gallery and continued into Rhode Island in 2013 as a partner and curator/gallery director for Coastal Living Gallery in Wickford and Warren RI. Working with New England based artists, she hosts over twelve exhibits a year and was recently invited as guest juror for The Warwick Museum of Art. She is a founding member of the Providence Center for Photographic Arts (PCPA) and is co-curating an exhibition of exceptional northeastern female photographers honoring Women's Month, March of 2017. Additionally, Rubeck is the administrator for the real estate brokerage, Coastal Properties Group; managing marketing, social media, event planning, legal documents, website development and maintenance.

Her work is currently touring with the Affordable Art Fairs throughout Europe and Asia. She is represented by Woodman Shimko CA & MA, Carver Hill ME, Dacia NYC and Retrospect Galleries of Australia and has been published in numerous online and print publications.
