Juried Artist Member (JAM) Application Policy

It is the policy of Wickford Art Association that all artists who apply for Juried Artist Member Status select a single medium in which to be reviewed. Applicants are asked to provide a portfolio of works in their selected medium. IMPORTANT: Once advanced to the status of JAM, artists may continue to enter member and juried exhibits, offsite exhibits, and sell work through the online shop, browse bins and greeting card display with work in any medium; however, if offered the opportunity to exhibit in a JAM Invitational Exhibit, JAM's must present work in the medium (indicated on page 2) through which they were accepted as a Juried Artist Member. In all cases, WAA requests that all JAMs put their best effort forward in presenting the highest quality work possible if choosing to exhibit in a variety of media.
